

A Broken Soul

By Abner Alvarado
2nd Place, 2nd Period

I am a lost man looking for himself

I always question life

At times I feel hopeless

I want to heal

I am a lost man looking for himself

I never show emotions

I feel like I am drawing in my problems

I feel my chest but no heart beats

Failing is my worst fear

I talk to God about my struggle

I am a lost man looking for himself

Life doesn't always go your way

I say " I don't deserve this"

I dream about a world of peace

I make an effort to be positive

Trying not to give up

I am a lost man looking for himself
